- 10.3.1. The University will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order.
- 10.3.2. Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis.
 - 10.3.2.1. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail, and the total price shall be corrected.
 - 10.3.2.2. If the Supplier does not accept the correction of the errors, its bid will be rejected, and its bid security may be forfeited.
 - 10.3.2.3. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words will prevail.
- 10.3.3. The University may waive any minor informality, nonconformity, or irregularity in a bid which does not constitute a material deviation, provided such waiver does not prejudice or affect the relative ranking of any Bidder.
- 10.3.4. Prior to the detailed evaluation, the University will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the bidding documents. For purposes of these Clauses, a substantially responsive bid is one which conforms to all the terms and conditions of the bidding documents without material deviations. Deviations from, or objections or reservation to critical provisions, such as those concerning Bid Security and Taxes and Duties will be deemed to be a material deviation. The University's determination of a bid's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

10.3.5. If a bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the University and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the nonconformity.

10.4. Evaluation and Comparison of Bids

10.4.1. The University will evaluate and compare the bids which have been determined to be substantially responsive.

10.4.2. The University evaluation of a bid, further elaborated under Bid Data Sheet, will be on delivered duty paid (DDP) price inclusive of prevailing duties, taxes and transportation charges, and it will exclude any allowance for price adjustment during the period of execution of the contract, if provided in the bid.

10.4.3. 60% weightage will be given to technical evaluation while 40% weightage to financial evaluation.

10.5. Contacting

10.5.1. No Bidder shall contact on any matter relating to its bid, from the time of the bid opening to the time the contract is awarded. If the Bidder wishes to bring additional information to the notice of the University, it should do so in writing.

10.5.2. Any effort by a Bidder to influence the University in its decisions on bid evaluation, bid comparison, or contract award may result in the rejection of the Bidder's bid
